Art. 4 Selection Board

The awarding of the MS degree prize is decided on the basis of a ranking drawn up by a Selection Board appointed by managerial decree after the deadline of the call for applications.

The ranking shall be drawn up by the Board on the basis of the academic career and the MS thesis produced.

On the condition that the requirements in Art. 2 of the call are met, in the event that multiple applicants hold equivalent qualifications, the Board may decide to divide the amount of the prize among them.

Should the Selection Board decide that none of the theses presented by the competitors is adequate, the prize shall not be awarded.

The ranking shall be posted on the university website in the section:

<https://www.polimi.it/studenti-iscritti/tasse-borse-e-agevolazioni-economiche/altre-borse-di-studio-e-premi>

Art. 5 General rules

Non-cumulation: the MS degree prize cannot be combined with other Politecnico di Milano prizes received for the same MS thesis

Waiver: in case of waiver by the winner, the MS degree prize shall be awarded to the next applicant in the ranking.

Payment: the MS degree prize shall be paid in a single payment. The winner shall be notified via email, after the publication of the final ranking, at their university e-mail address. Within 10 days of receiving said notification, the winners must return the forms attached to the award notification, signed for acceptance.

Taxation: monies awarded are subject to taxation, in accordance with current legislation on scholarships and degree prizes. The degree prize is treated as income equivalent to employment, and is therefore taxed accordingly. The costs borne by the Politecnico di Milano correspond to the regional production (IRAP) rate amounting to 8.5% of the amount of the degree prize.

Art. 6 Head of procedure

Pursuant to Art. 5 of Italian Law No 241 of 7 August 1990, the head of this call for applications procedure is Ivano Ciceri.
